

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

service provider checklist #1

providing information and services for culturally diverse consumers

- Is information about your service available to consumers in a range of languages & formats like audiotapes, CDs, brochures?

- Do you use interpreters? Are consumers told they have the right to an interpreter? Is there an easy way for people to identify their preferred language?

- Have interpreters been provided with basic information & training about working with mental health consumers?

- Have all staff & volunteers participated in cultural competency training?

- Do posters, pictures & other promotional materials reflect the cultural diversity of the service's consumers and community?

Based on REALITY CHECK: culturally diverse mental health consumers speak out published by MMHA.

www.mmha.org.au

© 2004 Multicultural Mental Health Australia

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

service provider checklist #2 planning & evaluating services for culturally diverse consumers

- Does your organisation value diversity, cultural competence & consumer involvement? Is this reflected in service delivery, planning, evaluation and documentation?

- Does your service train & support consumers to work with other consumers?

- Is your service aware of local ethno-specific services? Does it refer to these services where appropriate?

- Does your service work collaboratively with local ethno-specific agencies to draw on their expertise?

- Does your service evaluation measure how well your consumers reflect the cultural diversity of the population in your area?

Based on REALITY CHECK: culturally diverse mental health consumers speak out published by MMHA.

www.mmha.org.au